

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

Rishabh Gupta
Secretary, MKMES

Dear Readers

At the onset of a prosperous and promising New Year 2011, I would like to wish you all a year full of contentment and joy.

I m delighted to share that MKMES is widening its approach for the upliftment of the society.

With the establishment of another Stitchery Centre for poor and destitute women at Jhilmil Colony, Shahdra, New Delhi, MKMES endeavors to provide opportunities to the women & girls from under privileged background so that they have more options for income-generation & can lead more comfortable life as their city counterparts.

In the world of today where prejudice is no more unfamiliar, MKMES certainly believes that the place of goodness and high morals still prevails. Echoing the same sentiment, the organization strives to take some coherent initiatives towards reviving the age old values with the people who share the same thought as we do.

After all, one step towards goodness leads to mammoth contentment and fulfillment.

“Love and kindness are never wasted. They always make a difference. They bless the one who receives them, and they bless you, the giver.”

On this pleasant note MKMES invites you to contribute to the noble cause for betterment of the underprivileged section of the society.

ANOTHER MILESTONE FOR CREATIVE HANDS

STITCHERY CENTRE AT JHILMIL COLONY

With the success of the Stitchery Centre at Sector-93 Noida and the response of so many underprivileged women benefitting from it, MKMES Secretary, Mr. Rishabh Gupta, initiated the launch of another Stitchery Centre at Jhilmil Colony.

This Stitchery Centre, located at D-230, Jhilmil Colony, Shahdra, Delhi-95, is taken care by Ms. Kanta Madaan, who has a working experience of 22 years with National Bal Bhavan as a Stitchery Expert. The Centre will cater to the needs of the underprivileged girls and women in the various slum clusters in the surrounding areas. Training is being provided free of cost for cutting, tailoring, embroidery and needle work to the poor women of all age-groups.

Mata Krishnawanti Memorial Educational Society has not just provided all the tailoring equipment like Singer machines, embroidery machines, etc. but also supplies the raw material like cloth, threads, etc. so as to facilitate a smooth & motivated environment for these women to learn. Such initiatives by the Society really prove to be beneficial as they help so many underprivileged women with the skills for income-generation and employment.

A HEALING TOUCH

We, at Mata Krishnawanti Memorial Educational Society understand each and every aspect of the little children. The Society endeavors to provide not just food, clothing and education to the underprivileged children but now there is a new dimension to it. Mata Krishnawanti Memorial Educational Society is glad to have a helping hand, Ms. Rajni Khanduja, a child psychologist, who has been working in the field of guidance and counseling for the past 10 years.

Ms. Rajni visits nearby villages and slum clusters of Madipur, Nangloi, JJ Colonies, where she meets and interacts with the little children and their family members. These are the children whose problems and emotions get neglected due to the challenges of poverty which their parents are going through.

Ms. Rajni gets herself involved in each and every child personally, and tries to resolve their issues and provides the best possible remedial measures and care to the children and their families. It is indeed bringing a healing touch to many children and families.
